As the beautiful and beloved Miss Eva Hieronymus, she was well known to the people of Clarksville, with whom, in the family of Mr. Hyman, she spent most of her youth. Her amiable and sweet disposition won her the love and esteem of all, and many a heart has been touched with grief by her death. Just entered the portals of sweet womanhood, her death is doubly sad, but her pure Christian life has gained her a nome of eternal joy, and the thought of this, we trust, will serve to cheer the lonely hearts of her grief-stricken
